FUNSTON WILL HANDLE STRIKE

STARTS LEAVING FOR GOLDFIELD ON ROOSEVELT'S REQUEST.

WILL DECLARE MARTIAL LAW

GOVERNOR SPARKS VISITS CAMP UNEXPECTEDLY.

MINES TO REOPEN TOMORROW

Operators Have Secured 500 Men in California Through Thiel Detective Agency to Work in Mines—Soldiers to Search for Arms.

GOLDFIELD, Nev., Dec. 10.—It is reported here tonight that General Funston is to come to Goldfield to personally take charge of the situation here. More troops, it was also said, may be sent. Governor John Sparks arrived this afternoon from Carson and had a conference with Colonel Alfred Reynolds, in command of the federal troops here. Meetings of the executive committees of the Goldfield miners union and of the Goldfield mine owners association were held tonight. It is believed here that President Roosevelt is responsible for the decision of General Funston to come to Goldfield; that the intention is to take the conduct of affairs out of the hands of Governor Sparks and the Esmeralda county officials, and that martial law will be declared in Goldfield immediately upon the arrival of General Funston.

[illegible], the request for this drastic action by the President came from the mine operators here, who are fearful of the consequences when the attempt to reopen the mines is made. The operators are determined to carry out their intention to resume operations Thursday.

Rumors of Trouble.

The arrival of Governor Sparks in Goldfield early this afternoon has led to many rumors of impending trouble, but beyond the little excitement caused by the presence of the governor two days ahead of the time announced, nothing has transpired today to materially affect the situation. Indications are that the military authorities are preparing to proclaim martial law. [illegible] situation than will be taken out of the hands of Governor Sparks, who is not in touch with the sheriff's office. General Frederick Funston, who is to arrive here from San Francisco Thursday to personally take charge of the troops and handle the situation, will be in absolute control. This afternoon Governor Sparks, accompanied by a representative here, Colonel William [illegible] went in an automobile to the headquarters of Colonel Reynolds and an hour was spent in going over the situation in Goldfield. Colonel Reynolds said that he has not yet obtained a thorough grasp of the situation or learned all of the conditions which led to the sending of troops.

Besieged by Visitors.

Governor Sparks was visited at the hotel where he is stopping by many of the prominent mine owners and members and officials of the Goldfield Mine Owners association, but he denied that any official conference between himself and the officials of the association has taken place since his arrival. He was also visited by officers of the Goldfield miners union, who assured him that the union will do all in its power to prevent violence and has been and still is earnestly endeavoring to effect a peaceable settlement of differences between themselves and the operators of the mines.

Will Search Camp.

The universal impression is that martial law will not be declared until after the arrival of General Funston, but that preparations will be made now for the work that will have to be performed by the troops as soon as such action is taken. Doubtless a search of the camp will be made for weapons and ammunition alleged to be hidden by some of the desperate element among the miners and the districts where the miners live, will be patrolled by the soldiers night and day. The Mine Owners association officers assert that the original intention to open the mines on Thursday morning will be carried out and that enough men have already been secured to carry out the attempt, although it is admitted that the number of men who have already signed the new agreement as individuals is small and that their hope is in the supposition that after a few of the more fearless ones have gone back many others will soon follow.

Get Men in California.

It is definitely known that at least [illegible] men have been secured in the mining camps of California, principally in Calaveras county through the agency of the Thiel Detective bureau and are being held in readiness to come to Goldfield on two days' notice. A representative of the Thiel bureau is in Goldfield and while he has had no [illegible] with the Mine Owners association it is said that several individual

PLAGUE IS DIMINISHING

FRISCO RIDDING ITSELF OF RATS AND DISEASE.

Official Report Shows Total Death Roll of 67 Out of 112 Cases of Bubonic.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The next report of the public health and marine hospital service will contain the official statement by former Assistant Surgeon Hobdy, that bubonic plague infection "is still generally distributed in San Francisco, but the percentage is very much lower than was at first reported."

"Investigation along the water front," he adds, "shows that there is a considerable diminution of rats present and a still more marked decrease in sick or dead rats seen. Of the dead rats found many were proved to have died from the results of the rat crusade now being waged. Late observations indicate that the number of rats found on board vessels in the harbor of San Francisco is being steadily reduced."

Former Assistant Surgeon Rupert Blue, in charge of the plague extermination campaign in San Francisco, will report that up to December 7 the number of cases reached 112, total deaths 67, death rate 59.8 per cent. During the week ending last Saturday 4,586 premises were inspected for plague, 18 houses were disinfected; 20 houses were destroyed by fire or other means; 561 rats were found dead in the city, 1,911 rats were trapped and killed, and of 811 rats bacteriologically examined only one was found to be infected with the plague bacillus."

The statistics show that in India from April 30 to October 30 there were 553,-[illegible] cases of plague and 474,914 deaths therefrom.

CAN'T KEEP CONTRACT

EL PASO UNABLE TO DRILL AT REQUIRED RATE.

Property to Be Leased Above Water Level—James F. Burns May Apply for Injunction.

The Cripple Creek drainage tunnel has received another setback. At the meeting of the directors of the El Paso Consolidated Gold Mining company yesterday morning, it was decided to notify the drainage tunnel company that unless it eliminates the forfeiture and time clauses in the contract for the boring of the tunnel, the El Paso company will surrender the contract next Monday. Directors of the drainage tunnel company will meet within the next day or two to consider the future of the tunnel.

At the meeting of the El Paso directors it was also decided to lease the property of the company above the 600-foot level in 20 blocks. This action was fought by Allen L. Burris, and is likely to result in the beginning of injunction proceedings by James F. Burns.

The action of the El Paso directors practically throws the boring of the tunnel back upon the directors of the tunnel company. While one of the members of this latter board last night admitted that prospects for the tunnel looked somewhat discouraging, he stated emphatically that the work would continue.

Rock Is Too Hard.

The El Paso company took charge of the work the first of September, and on September 15 was put under contract to do 250 feet of development work a month under penalty of forfeiting the contract at the end of three months' time. The company has been unable to live up to its contract, having done only about 200 feet per month. Its action yesterday, therefore, is a formal acknowledgement of the fact that it has been unable to fulfill the terms in the contract on account of the hardness of the rock, but indicates that it is willing to keep the contract providing the drainage tunnel company will waive the forfeiture and time clauses.

Burns Threatens Suit.

What the action of the tunnel company will be is not known, but F. F. Castello announced yesterday that a meeting of the directors would be called within the next few days to consider the matter thoroughly. It is understood that Carlton and Trevarrow, who made an unsuccessful bid on the basis of 200 feet of development work a month, are willing to assume the contract, but whether they have made any definite bid to the company is not known. James F. Burns, who is now the largest individual stockholder in the El Paso company, has threatened to secure an injunction to prevent the company from doing the tunnel work.

The action of the directors in deciding to adopt the leasing system is

LIMIT RESERVE TO GOLD COIN

CHAIRMAN FOWLER OFFERS REMEDY FOR BANK SYSTEM.

INCREASE CREDIT CURRENCY

ISSUE OF NOTES SHOULD CORRESPOND TO TRADE CONDITIONS

BOND ISSUE SPELLS DANGER

Present Banking Practice Cost $150,000,000 Yearly in Idle Currency—Government Plan of Bond Secured Currency Brings Financial Calamity.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Congressman Charles N. Fowler of Elizabeth, N. J., chairman of the House committee on banking and currency, was the chief speaker tonight at the annual banquet of the Illinois Manufacturers' association.

Mr. Fowler spoke on "The Financial Situation." He said in part:

"Let us settle once for all that the only proper reserve for our banks to hold is gold coin, and that we are most unfortunate in having to carry $[illegible] of United States notes and $[illegible] of silver, maintaining them upon a parity with gold and thereby justifying as best we can their use as reserve. Let us not forget that both our silver and United States notes are serious stumbling blocks, though not insurmountable obstacles to our becoming the financial center of the world, provided they may be practically eliminated in time from our financial calculations.

A great central bank is in my opinion a political impossibility, at present. [illegible] regard a great central bank as essential to a scientific, sound and wise banking and currency system for the United States, provided we can unify and co-ordinate our banking interests, bring them substantially into one system which will secure universal co-operation and the strength of a combination of our entire banking capital, and, even with a central bank the same co-ordination must be effected.

Must Have Gold Reserve.

Our reserve must be all of the same character—gold or its equivalent, because gold is our standard of value.

Our reserve in all of our financial institutions must be adequate to prove our credits and protect our depositors.

We must adopt the principle of free interchange of banking credits and bank note credits.

Our bank notes must spring into existence precisely as checks and drafts do through business transactions.

Our bank notes must be related to and based upon the consumable commodities of the country; going out with production and coming in with consumption.

An Expensive Practice.

The practice, I will not say principle, of finance and currency now in operation in this country is costing the American people at least $150,000,000 annually, in addition to the frightful devastation of values incident to such currency panics as the present, which are liable to occur at any time if some significant failure should precipitate it.

The cost to the people of $150,000,000 arises from the fact that the use of all the capital represented by the bonds deposited to secure our present bank notes, is lost because they are wholly unnecessary and in their present use and relation are an unmitigated curse.

The use of the capital represented by the bonds deposited to secure government deposits is also lost, as well as interest at the rate of 2 per cent upon government deposits, which, since the establishment of the national banking system up to the present time has amounted to about $75,000,000, or nearly twice as much as the loss to depositors resulting from failures of national banks.

People Hold Many Millions.

There is in the pockets of the people $1,250,000,000 of reserve money, $1,000,000,000 of which at least should be exchanged for current credit or credit currency.

Who pays for this waste of capital? American labor. Upon labor rests the entire cost of the banking business, which is a necessary evil incident to the production, transportation and sale or disposition of $25,000,000,000 worth of product annually.

A law should be passed giving to the national banks the right of exercising in the respective states where located all the powers of executors, administrators, guardians and trustees. Unless this step is taken the advantages now enjoyed by the trust companies will gradually but inevitable compel the national banks to surrender their charters for trust company charters; for if a trust company is required to carry only one-fifth or one-half the reserve of a national bank, it can afford to pay a much higher rate of interest [illegible] and eventually undermine the national banks.

Increase Credit Currency.

The right should be given to national banks to issue an amount of credit currency equal at least to their capital.

These two powers would have the effect of bringing into the national system practically all the trust companies and state banks if our recent experiences have confirmed the public opinion that the required reserves of the national banks are none too high.

If our banks were authorized to convert their bank book credits into bank note credits, upon the demand of depositors, there never would be a currency famine such as we are suffering from now.

A credit currency cannot in any way lead to expansion, but it would rather tend to prevent expansion, if put upon the same footing in all respects as checks and drafts. Our currency will then be perfectly co-ordinated to the needs of business, being neither too great nor too little, the currency always springing into being with business needs, and automatically disappearing as easily as checks and drafts do.

No civilized country now has a bond-secured currency such as we have; and no civilized country of [illegible] ever did have such a currency except one, and that is Japan; who copied it from us only to [illegible] and [illegible] in favor of a [illegible] currency.

Yet [illegible] we are still in the [illegible] of our [illegible]

[illegible] who, ignorant of the causes and thoughtless of the future, would have us take another plunge in the same direction by adding to our overwhelming load of fixed, immovable, bond-secured notes and other mass of bank notes based upon state, [illegible] and [illegible] bonds. Could any one conceive and [illegible] a gigantic scheme of inflation.

Predicts Calamity.

I now declare that if this government [illegible] as proposed [illegible] into the [illegible] bond-secured [illegible] securities, by both speculations and manipulations and in exceptional [illegible] we shall continue to move with an accelerated speed and with certainty of a [illegible] and absolute certainty of passing the [illegible] commercial breakdown [illegible] which the present [illegible] only a present [illegible] It there is such a thing [illegible] time [illegible] ditions of trade and commerce [illegible]

The high class of Colorado poultry was well exemplified yesterday when W. C. Ellison, in making his first awards at the Pikes Peak Poultry show at 118 North Tejon street, ranked the birds in many of the classes as the equal of any in the country. Of the White Leghorns, he said that there were no better ones shown at the Madison Square Gardens, and that the White Plymouth Rocks were nearly as good. The White Wyandottes he also classed as fine. TO REMEDY BLUE LAW

GOTHAM MAY PERMIT CERTAIN SUNDAY CONCERTS.

Ordinance Presented Which Forbids Dancing but Permits Singing in Public.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—After a heated debate a proposed ordinance removing the ban from Sunday concerts and other forms of mild entertainment on the first day of the week was referred by the board of aldermen today to the committee on laws and legislation and New York is promised another "blue" Sunday, as the board will not meet again until next Tuesday.

The law committee will hold a public hearing on the resolution on Friday.

Alderman Reginald Doull, presented an ordinance which, while forbidding plays, operas, farces, [illegible] minstrel shows, dancing or other stage performances would permit vocal or instrumental concerts, lectures, recitations and singing. Although the ordinance was less liberal than had been expected it provoked sharp debate. Alderman Doull said that he had submitted the ordinance to the corporation counsel who declared it legal and not in conflict with the penal code. Alderman Meyers said that the ordinance was in the interest of a vaudeville trust, and [illegible] should be shown those who [illegible] a quiet Sunday. Alderman Timothy Sullivan, the majority leader of the board [illegible] that the people [illegible] immediate relief and that every newspaper in the city was for the ordinance.

ORCHARD TO RECITE STORY

SCENE OF STEUNENBERG MURDER RECALLED.

SIMPKINS ALSO IMPLICATED

Two Conspirators Occupied Same Room in Hotel at Time of Murder and Orchard Was Seen Near Governor's Residence Same Day.

BOISE, Dec. 10.—Painting George A. Pettibone, the defendant at bar is the most guilty of all those charged with causing the death of ex-Governor Frank Steunenberg, James H. Hawley outlined the state's case today. Little effort at oratory was made by the chief prosecutor, but he [illegible] told the jury what it is proposed to prove. For two hours, he spoke of what he termed the [illegible] conspiracy in the annals of crime, always keeping in the foreground the part which it is alleged Pettibone took in it. The taking of evidence began at the afternoon session and before court adjourned for the day the state had established the corpus delicti clearing the way for Harry Orchard, who will tomorrow take the witness stand and for the second time tell to a jury his story of blood. Orchard was brought from the penitentiary to the city this afternoon and will spend the night in the office of James H. Hawley. Senator Borah, who arrived from Washington during the night, conducted the examination of state witnesses this afternoon.

Borah Examines Witnesses.

When court convened at the afternoon session Senator Borah called C. F. Wynn to the stand. He lived just across the street from the Steunenberg residence at Caldwell and told of hearing the explosion of the bomb. Going to investigate he found Steunenberg about 10 feet from the gate of his home and tried to pick him up, but he was so badly mangled that it could not be done. When others arrived the injured man was carried to his house and he died half an hour later. The witness graphically described Steunenberg's condition saying that he was mangled beyond recognition. Steunenberg's injuries were described by Dr. J. W. Gue, who was called immediately after the explosion.

John C. Rice and A. Ballentine testified to seeing Harry Orchard go in the direction of the Steunenberg residence half an hour before the explosion. Julian Steunenberg, son of the murdered ex-governor, testified that three days before his father was killed Orchard, who was then known as Hogan, asked him when his father would return from his sheep camp.

Simpkins With Orchard.

L. J. Bowman identified a photograph of Jack Simpkins as a man going by the name of Simmons, who was with Orchard for some time at the Pacific hotel in Caldwell previous to the murder. Stephen Dempsey, former proprietor of the Pacific hotel, also identified the picture of Simpkins and identified the hotel register which showed that Hogan registered September 2, 1906, and again on November 2, when Simmons also registered, and they were assigned to the same room.

Guy Freight, who stopped at the Pacific hotel during the time Orchard was there, identified Simpkins' picture. Hotel registers were identified and introduced showing that Orchard was at the Grand hotel at Nampa, November 11, 1905, together with Simpkins, who registered under his true name, that he was at Nampa again November 15 and that Simpkins was at Silver City November 8. None of the witnesses were cross-examined by the defense.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT

A. M. Baringer Arrested in Pueblo on Complaint of Globe Express Company Manager.

Charged with embezzling $150 from his employers, A. M. Baringer was arrested in Pueblo and brought to this city last night. Baringer had been employed by the Globe Express company at its city office, 18 North Tejon street, for a short time. Last Thursday he disappeared from this city, taking with him a considerable amount of money belonging to the company, according to the police. The authorities were notified by the manager of the office and Special Agent Dawson of the Rock Island also was detailed on the case.

Baringer was apprehended in Pueblo yesterday, and was brought to this city by Agent Dawson last night. He was turned over to the police and placed in the city jail where he spent the night. A warrant will be sworn out this [illegible], when he will be turned over to Justice Ruby's court and given a trial on the charge of embezzlement.

PAY DAYS HERE AGAIN

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS TO BE PAID OUT THIS WEEK.

Exchange National Bank Will Issue $50,000 in New Currency on Panama Bonds.

The recurrence of the monthly pay days again finds the Colorado Springs and Colorado City banks in excellent condition for meeting all demands made upon them. According to an announcement made yesterday by one of the Colorado Springs bankers, all of the payrolls of Colorado Springs, Colorado City and the Cripple Creek district will again be met in currency, mostly gold. In all, between $[illegible] and $2,[illegible] is to be paid out in these three cities within the next week, and the greater portion of this amount is drawn from the local banks.

The Colorado Springs and Colorado City payrolls alone amount to between $[illegible] and $[illegible]. The payment of these began yesterday when two of the largest, those of the Portland and Golden Cycle mills were met. On Saturday of this week, the employes of the Colorado Midland shops and the United States Reduction and Refining company mills will be paid. In addition to these the Denver and Rio Grande railroad and many of the larger firms of the city make their payments at this time of the month.

The Exchange National bank has been awarded $50,000 of the $15,000,000 issue of Panama canal bonds, the rate being 102 1-8, the lowest paid by any bank in the country. Other banks, whose orders were received at a later date, paid as high as 106 3-4. The Exchange bank will immediately issue $50,000 in new currency, using the bonds [illegible] circulation.

RUSSIA IS HARD UP

NEEDS $93,000,000 FOR EXTRA EXPENDITURE.

All Parties in Duma Recognize Necessity of Having Funds and Harmony Exists.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 10.—In making the budget statement in the duma today, M. Kokovsoff, the finance minister pointed out that to cover the extraordinary expenditure about $93,000,000 would be needed and in the government's opinion this sum could only be procured by credit operations. Simultaneously with the approval of the budget bill he said, the duma would be asked to sanction the conclusion of necessary loans.

The minister of finance prefaced this announcement with an interesting statement on the necessity of changes in the economic regime which he asserted could only be accomplished by means of legislation.

Among the items of expenditure which have caused the necessity of raising a loan the minister mentioned an increase of $25,000,000 for national defense, $27,000,000 for the army, $8,000,000 for the navy and $23,000,000 for improvements in communication.

The extraordinary expenditure for last year amounted to $102,000,000.

An estimate of revenues was given in the budget statement but the fear is expressed that the returns would not come up to the estimates.

To Have Direct Taxation.

Discussing the question of taxation the finance minister said that the transition from a system of indirect to direct taxation was not easy. If the charge was made that in Russia, owing to the predominance of the motley classes the death duty and land taxes were little developed and the income tax practically nonexistent, it was for the duma to remove the defects in the income tax introduced in the second duma, and a bill to amend the death duty shortly would be submitted to the house.

The duma gave the most careful attention to M. Kokovsoff's statement. M. Yeropkin, the Octobrist spokesman, opened the debate in a spirit quite different from that inspired in the second duma.

He declared that the duma's rights in the matter of criticism must be extended to cover the so-called "armored" budget which now was beyond its competence, but he professed readiness to sanction expenditures the necessity for which was demonstrated, [illegible] with the representatives of the minister of finance. M. Chelyshoff, an Octoberist and temperance advocate then got the floor and delivered a speech which lasted an hour, in which he demanded that the spirits monopoly and other sources of revenue be abolished.

RIVER WRECKED SUPPORTS

BODIES CARRIED FOR MILES DOWN STREAM

MANY THRILLING ESCAPES

Mass of Twisted and Broken Steel in Which Men Were Tangled Renders Work of Rescuers Difficult—Four Bodies Recovered.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Dec. 10.—High water tonight caused the collapse of a new bridge in course of construction over the west branch of the Susquehanna river at Mifflinsville, eight miles north of here, and resulted in the death of seven men and the injury of nearly a score of others, two perhaps fatally. Forty men were at work on the middle span of the structure when it collapsed. They were all thrown into the swollen river. The dead:

V. W. EAHS, Settings Grove.

CHARLES CREITZER, Settings Grove.

ADAM NUSS, Settings Grove.

ADAM TRITT, Beaver Valley.

IRWIN EPDEGHAFF, Georgetown.

MILLARD BOWMAN, Mifflinsville.

GEORGE B. FEAUX, address unknown.

The most seriously injured: William Boyer, New York; back broken and fatally hurt. Ray Sherwood, Neosho, Pa.; spine injured and skull punctured; probably fatal. Percival Reightieback, leg broken. Howard Reighteback, leg fractured; William Mower, leg broken. Luther Eckered, shoulder dislocated. Cecil Sharer, shoulder dislocated. Newtown Delton, general contusions. Harry C. Goodlinger, right leg broken. John Seesholtz, general contusions. John Fisher, arm broken. William Watkins, general cuts. Jacob Johnson, fractured leg.

Swollen River Causes Wreck.

The collapse of the bridge was caused by the rapid rise in the river. The water rose during the day at the rate of almost one foot an hour and debris carried down the stream by the flood struck the false work of the bridge and caused its collapse. A large tree trunk struck the false work just before the bridge fell.

The accident occurred just at nightfall when the men were preparing to abandon their work.

Rescue Work Difficult.

As a result the work of rescuing those who were thrown into the waters caught in the mass of twisted iron and steel was greatly retarded. The second span of the bridge was being erected and it was this span that fell with the bridge traveler. The bodies of four of those killed were found floating on the surface of the water entangled in bent and twisted girders and iron work but the others have not been found. Many of the men were caught in the rapid waters and carried a mile or more down the river before they were rescued.

Had Narrow Escape.

One of the most remarkable escapes was that of William Nesbit, who was caught in the iron work and held a prisoner for an hour with his mouth and chin above water before being rescued.

The bridge was being built by the state to replace the one carried away in a freshet in 1903. The county authorities refused to rebuild and it was only by the passage of the Rose bill by the legislature of 1904 that the state was authorized to put up the structure.

Superintendent Layton, in charge of construction work, who was on the bridge when it fell, says he has not been able to ascertain the cause of the collapse aside from the washing out of the false work by the high water.

STOESSEL HOLDS TRUMP

HAS TELEGRAM FROM EMPEROR TO PRESENT.

Was Told by Czar Not to Push Defense to Extremities Nor Waste Lives of Men.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 10.—Before a brilliant assemblage of his old comrades in arms, Lieutenant General Stoessel was today placed on trial to answer with his life and regiment for the loss of Port Arthur on the first of January, 1905. In arms, tones and with confident manner the general ... needlessly surrendering the fortress and thereby humiliating the Russian army.

General Stoessel ... telegrams from Irkutsk and Vladivostok from the Siberian regiments formerly under his command, declaring their solidarity. General Kuropatkin said to General Stoessel ... "... it will end well."

It is generally ... that Stoessel is in possession of a weapon in the shape of a telegram received by him before the surrender of Port Arthur in which the emperor said:

"Don't push the defense to extremities," meaning by this to spare the lives of the Russian soldiers when their power of resistance was exhausted, as the emperor feared that the Japanese might repeat the feat of a former capture of the fortress when they put to death 10,000 Chinese.

One or two incidents showed the attitude of the court to be unfavorable to Stoessel. His personal request that two additional witnesses be called in was dismissed without ceremony.

One of these witnesses, Dr. Rezanoff, chief of the Red Cross within the fortress, at the preliminary hearing testified that at the time of the surrender General Stoessel had but 8,000 ablebodied men to defend the hundreds of miles of fortifications, and the cold winds at the time made it difficult for the soldiers even to hold their rifles.

General Nadien, the other witness excluded, is the author of a deposition similar to that of Dr. Rezanoff. The general commanded the firing line at Port Arthur.

The correspondent of the Associated Press spoke with witnesses of all ranks. They declared the trial to be an insult to General Stoessel and to his army.

A prominent colonel said: "If Stoessel is guilty we all are guilty."

Have Special Constables.

Thirty deputy constables are now in the employ of the Mine Owners' association and at least 100 more will be sworn in before Thursday morning and detailed in the district where are located the mines which are to be opened.

Thursday morning, when the mines are opened, but a few miners who have renounced allegiance to the Western Federation of Miners will be on hand to go to work and little trouble is anticipated at that time. The men will come from scattered parts of the camp and until they arrive at the mine no one will learn their identity except those who employ them. On Thursday night, when the work of the day is over, the men who have worked in the mines will be heavily guarded by constables and perhaps by soldiers, and their homes also will be guarded. The Mine Owners' association has given the miners who have signified their willingness to go to work assurances that every effort will be made to protect their persons and their homes. At the meeting of the executive committee of the miners' union tonight resolutions condemning the authorities for sending the troops, protesting against their remaining here and demanding their withdrawal at once, were passed. The decision to stand by the previous declaration in regard to the refusal to accept scrip in lieu of coin for wages was made and it was also decided to make no overtures to the mine owners other than those previously extended.

Troopers in Trouble.

C. E. Mahoney, vice president of the Western Federation of Miners, is on his way to Goldfield from Denver. He will arrive tomorrow. Some action by the local union may be taken after his arrival looking to a speedy settlement of the troubles here.

A sergeant in camp No. 2 near the Consolidated mines was assaulted by a private today and slightly cut by a knife in the hands of the soldier. Another trooper who had been working in the commissary department was caught attempting to sell army rations to local storekeepers. He had purloined two cases of bacon and was peddling it from a hack.

CHICAGO IS FAVORED CITY

Democratic National Convention Will Likely Be Held in the Lake Metropolis.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic national committee, left here today for Washington where the committee will meet on Thursday to decide upon the date and place for the next convention.

Mr. Taggart was accompanied by Roger C. Sullivan of Illinois, Urey Woodson of Kentucky and Martin J. Wade of Iowa, all members of the national committee. Before leaving Mr. Taggart gave out the official list of cities which are after the convention. It includes St. Paul, Atlantic City, Louisville, Chicago, Denver, St. Louis and Cincinnati.

Mr. Taggart said that Cleveland has been mentioned, but that he had not heard from there officially. Speaking of the requirements he said:

"Geography, railroad facilities, hotels and finances will be the combination to win. I have no hesitancy in saying that, exclusive of the money question, Chicago will get the convention. I have been assured, however, that there is not yet sufficient money in sight to insure the meeting for this city."

WORKMEN DIE IN RAGING FLOOD

vent flooding of mines in operation. The water is reported in the mines at Hazleton, and at Jeanesville the town was partly flooded by the breaking of a small reservoir. The tracks of the Lehigh Valley Traction company were washed away in several places.

The Lackawanna river is overflowed at Scranton and damage has been wrought in the valley from Carbondale to Old Forge. Trains on the Erie and Delaware and Hudson north of Carbondale were abandoned because of washouts. At Mayfield the river has broken its banks and is cutting a new channel through the lowlands. So great is the danger of flooding that the Glenwood mine ceased operations.

Bridges Demolished

In the city of Scranton two new bridges were damaged. A bridge was washed out at Blakely with a locomotive on it, and a dam at Chinchilla gave way. Fishing creek, in Columbia county, overflowed its banks and 15 bridges belonging to the Pennsylvania Lumber company at Jameson City were washed away, together with several hundred thousand feet of lumber. The works of the Union Tanning company are flooded and the town of Benton is in danger of being washed away. In the lower anthracite region Tamaqua is cut off from surrounding towns by the flood, and at Gilberton half a dozen collieries suspended operations. The little Lehigh at Allentown overflowed its banks and a number of mills and factories were closed down.

EDITOR SHOOTS DESPERADO

F. L. Burton Ex-Penitentiary Convict Formerly of Colorado Killed in Quarrel.

GOLDFIELD, Nev. Dec. 10.—Francis L. Burton was shot and killed today at Mina by J. Holtman Buck, editor and proprietor of the Western Nevada Miner. Buck printed in his paper an article asserting that Burton had been run out of the town of Rawhide by a committee and counseled the same treatment by the citizens of Mina. Burton took Buck to task and in the quarrel ensuing the former was killed. It is alleged that several years ago Burton was arrested in Massachusetts, for fraud in connection with some mining promotion. He was tried and convicted and sent to the penitentiary. He persuaded the warden of the penitentiary into investing $7,000 in one of his schemes while still a prisoner, and succeeded through the warden in getting a parole. He went back to Colorado, presumably to put through his scheme, but in the meantime broke his parole. The Massachusetts authorities attempted to extradite him but before they could get action, Burton was gone. Later he came to Nevada where he has had a meteoric career as a promoter of questionable schemes.

LIMA, Peru, Dec. 10.—President Pardo paid a visit to the American cruisers Washington and Tennessee today. He was received by Rear Admiral Sebree. The American warships which are anchored at Callao, will leave Thursday on their way to San Francisco.

ATHLETIC ASS'N CLEARS $500

Football Report of Manager Nye Published in High School Lever.

"The High School Athletic association cleared about $500 on the football season just closed, according to reports made in the football number of the Lever, issued yesterday. This includes the amounts made on the various games of the schedule, the Omega fiesta, and the junior class play. As a result of this season's success, the debt of the association has been reduced to $100. The financial success of the football season reflects great credit upon Prof. H. A. Nye, manager of the team, and Dwight Siser, his assistant.

The football number of the Lever is itself an excellent edition, presenting the review of the season in a comprehensive manner. Principal J. R. Richards contributes the leading article, and in this he takes occasion to compliment each of the men on the squad. In summarizing the season, he says in part:

"The past season has been a good one in both ways, in finance as well as in victories. The team has played clean, sportsmanlike football. Under great provocation in one game, the men showed their class by refusing to stoop to 'muckerism' or rowdy tactics. Our team contains some great players for a school team."

The various games of the season were reported by Captain Richard Morrison. The editor in chief of the Lever is Merle Sebring. Jay Randolph is business manager.

SPOKANE H. S. REQUESTS GAME

Washington Eleven Wants to Play Here Christmas—Offer Refused by Terrors.

Spokane high school yesterday requested a game with the Colorado Springs High School Terrors, to be played on Christmas day on Washburn field. As the Terrors are themselves planning a western trip, and since Spokane does not hold the championship of the northwest, the game will be refused.

The Washington high school eleven is contemplating a game on New Years day with Central High School of St. Louis, and would like to fill in its open Christmas date with the local eleven.

Principal Richards has received a letter from Richard Ewing, who is now in Utah, stating that the Ogden high school eleven favors a Christmas day game with the Terrors. Although no definite guarantee has yet been received from the authorities of that school, this indicates that the game is practically assured. The Terrors will, then, play two games on their western trip: December 20, at Delta; and December 23, at Ogden.

PLAN REFORMS IN BASEBALL

Double Header Games May Be Abolished by National League in Convention.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Several important reforms in baseball may result from the meeting of the National League of baseball clubs which convened here today. One of the proposed reforms is the abolition of the present system of so-called double header games frequently planned to draw large crowds. Some of the league members have expressed themselves as opposed to games of this kind, on the ground that they are unsportsmanlike. Aside from suggestions of this kind for changes in the rules, the only business to come before the meeting will be the election of officers.

President Pulliam has recommended that the sale of liquids in bottles and the sale of liquor in the grandstands be prohibited. President Pulliam declared that artificial double header games and seven inning contests should be done away with, as they did not make for the good of the sport. He recommended an improvement in the visiting players' club houses. The meeting adjourned until tomorrow.

WALSH JUGGLED HIS ACCOUNTS

Bought Railroad While in Receiver's Hands and Sold Bank Worthless Coal Bonds.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The trial of John R. Walsh, former president of the Chicago National bank, charged with misuse of bank funds, was resumed. F. H. Foreman of East St. Louis told of the purchase by Walsh of the Centralia and Chester railroad while it was in the hands of a receiver. The road was 51 miles long. Mr. Foreman was asked about a contract under which he, while receiver, furnished coal to the Centralia and Chester railroad, and whether it was not a fact that in doing so Foreman had made $3,000, which he was afterward compelled to refund.

Witness said: "Mr. Walsh suggested that I bid personally to furnish the coal, and I did so, making arrangements with the Sparta Coal company to furnish the coal. Afterward, Mr. Walsh did not like the agreement. A master's hearing was held and the master reported that I could not carry out the transaction because I was receiver."

J. K. Seifert, general manager of the Indiana Coal company, the last witness called, told of the transfer of $500,000 of Indiana Coal company stock and $355,000 in first mortgage bonds. He said that the bonds were sold to the Chicago National bank. The government contended that the stock was sold to the Southern Railroad company, and that by a series of manipulations the stock and bonds were disposed of at a profit to the railway and coal companies. The Indiana Southern Coal company was reorganized, it is charged, into the Southern Indiana Coal company, which issued $5,000,000 in bonds. The bonds are said to have been purchased by the Chicago National bank and to have been in the bank when it was closed.

$2,000,000 FOR FUND

CARNEGIE INCREASES INSTITUTE ENDOWMENT.

More Than Half Million Allotted to Scientific Work for Ensuing Year.

WASHINGTON, Dec. [illegible]—Andrew Carnegie has added $2,000,000 to the [illegible] endowment fund of the Carnegie institute. Announcement of the fact was made at a dinner tonight at the New Willard, [illegible] trustees of the institute, [illegible] which has been [illegible] a number of [illegible] and [illegible] prominent in public affairs. The dinner followed a meeting held earlier in the day at the institute's offices, attended by John S. Billings, chairman; Jos. [illegible] Cadwalader, Cleveland H. Dodge, William N. Frew, [illegible] [illegible], Henry L. Higginson, Charles L. Hutchinson, Seth Low, S. Weir Mitchell, William W. Morrow, Henry S. Pritchett, Elihu Root, Charles D. Walcott, William H. Welch, Andrew D. White, Carroll D. Wright and Robert S. Woodward, president of the institution. The report of the trustees showed that [illegible] work [illegible] $[illegible] was allotted for the prosecution of this work of scientific inquiry for next year. The trustees also decided to erect a suitable building at the corner of Sixteenth and [illegible] streets for the accommodation of the administrative offices of the institution in place of the present rented property.

Ex-Governor Andrew J. Montague of Virginia and William Barclay Parsons of New York, were elected trustees to fill vacancies.

Mr. Carnegie [illegible] to attend today's meetings [illegible] but [illegible] notice of his donation in the following letter:

"I have watched the progress of the institution under your charge and am delighted [illegible] that it has been such [illegible] me to add [illegible] to its endowment. [illegible] good [illegible] the trustees are to be highly congratulated [illegible] [illegible] I am [illegible] expectations [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to thank [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]."

important, and in view of the fact that the [illegible] is one of the largest [illegible] its adoption [illegible] [illegible] The action was taken in accordance with the recommendation of Superintendent W. M. Bainbridge, and was by a [illegible] vote of five to one, Allen L. Burris casting the negative vote. J. N. Beall was the only absent director.

The property above the [illegible] foot level is to be divided into 26 blocks, and the [illegible] to be open for inspection to would-be lessees until next Sunday. Signed bids will be received by the secretary of the company not later than December 20, to be opened the following [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] to be paid at the time of the granting of the lease, and the other two-thirds [illegible] [illegible] until the full amount is paid.

May Apply for Injunction.

James F. Burns yesterday stated that he would visit former Governor [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] take action [illegible] [illegible] largest individual stockholder. He is opposed both to the [illegible] contract and the adoption of the leasing system, and probably will endeavor to stop both by injunction. He was invited to attend the meeting yesterday but sent Horace Masterson as his representative. The latter made no attempt to attend the meeting.

Discussing [illegible] [illegible] the drainage tunnel, one of the directors of the El Paso company yesterday said that a written offer would be made to Mr. Burns to lease him the entire mine below the [illegible] level, or water level, on a 25 per cent [illegible] [illegible] for two years, thus giving him a chance to prove his theory that the mine can be drained in a few months.

Burris Makes Statement.

Allen L. Burris, who cast the only dissenting vote against the leasing proposition, last night made the following written statement of his position:

"Superintendent Bainbridge admitted that [illegible] El Paso mine were [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the present management [illegible] that there might be some one left in the old workings, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to lease. It developed that President Bernard had formed his opinion not from personal inspection but from men who had no interest in our company and only wished to get favorable concessions before the present management goes out of control.

"Personally I feel that the granting of these leases was of too great importance to the stockholders to be acted upon until they had a voice at the March meeting to say who should attend to this matter. I stated to the [illegible] that it was evident from [illegible] [illegible] the present executive management of our company that I had no confidence in them, especially President Bernard, but that if he should be selected by the majority of the stockholders at the March meeting to manage the affairs of our company again, I would forever hold my peace in the leasing matter."

HIGH CLASS POULTRY

fourth pullet, second and third cockerel, second and third pen, fourth, hen. S. J. Hoskins of Castle Rock was awarded first pen, first, second and third hen, first and fourth cockerel.

In the White Wyandotte, all of the premiums were taken by the splendid exhibit of [illegible] Johnson of this city, who also held over for another year the [illegible] [illegible] cup for the best pen.

The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] White Leghorns [illegible] [illegible]. All of the other awards in this variety were won by G. W. Vestal, together with the [illegible] cup for the best pen, and the Colorado Springs Printing Pressmen and Assistants union No. 140 Sweepstakes cup for the largest display in the Mediterranean class. Judge Ellison will continue his work today.

Much Care Used.

"People have no idea of the amount of care given to prepare these white fowls for the blue ribbon honors," said a leading fancier last evening. "They are soaked in white soapsuds, rubbed with soap and given a shampoo, then rinsed in clear water, and lastly soused in a tub of bluing and then dried with towels and fans. Their legs and feet are manicured and polished until they glisten like amber. I have never seen birds better conditioned for a show than ours."

The show opened yesterday with every indication of proving one of the most successful in the series of exhibitions given by the local association. A large attendance marked the opening day, and it is expected that the interest will increase as the week advances. Residents of the Printers home were guests of the association during the afternoon.

The Barred Rock class is as usual the largest in the show, there being 107 in this class alone. These birds lead in numbers in every show, no matter in what section of the country it is held, and this breed is the most popular fowl among the many varieties recognized by the standard. The exhibit of game fowls is interesting. Thomas S. Brigham has about the best Cornish Indian games ever exhibited in Colorado, having brought some of them from Kentucky. E. R. Stewart has some Red Pyle games and Mr. Howels of Curtis some White Pyle games.

Bantams and Pigeons.

Among the funnest birds in the show are the Bantams. These make fine pets, and some of them have learned tricks, such as "playing dead," and perching on the owner's hand, head or shoulder. Pigeons are as numerous as they were last year.

The pheasants entered by E. F. Kendrick of Denver are attracting considerable attention, as they are the first ever exhibited in Colorado Springs. They are placed at the rear of the hall where they can get fresh, cold air. They are fine and fullfeathered birds.

A feature of the show that makes it of particular educational value is the fact that upon each coop is the name of the variety it contains.

ELECTS HIBBARD MAYOR

BOSTON GOES REPUBLICAN IN HARD FIGHT.

After Six Years of Democratic Rule Hub City Turns Grafters Down in Election

BOSTON, Dec. 10.—[illegible] hardest fought election [illegible] which Boston has known for many years the city [illegible] Republican [illegible] Postmaster George A. Hibbard, Republican, [illegible] Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, Democrat, [illegible] [illegible] revised returns show the following vote cast for the mayoralty candidates: John A. Coulthurst, Independence League, [illegible]; Fitzgerald, Democrat, [illegible]; Hibbard, Republican, 38,067.

The city voted to license saloons by a large majority, somewhat smaller than in previous years, however, due to a hard campaign on the part of the clergy and others in an endeavor to keep the saloons out of the suburbs.

Two features contributed to the return of a Republican mayor after six years of Democratic administration, one being the vote given to the Independence League candidate by Democrats and the other the thorough investigation made by a finance committee into the affairs at the city hall [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] brought forth alleged irregularities in the purchasing department and in the granting of contracts through which it was claimed the city had lost hundreds of thousands of dollars. While the independent vote proved sufficient to transfer the power from one of the leading parties to the other, it did not come anywhere near the strength expected by those who based their estimates on the vote in the recent state campaign, when the Independence league polled a vote larger than the Democratic party.

WOMAN ACCUSES OFFICIALS

Says Crow Indian Agents Are Grafters and Obtains Investigation

HELENA, Mont., Dec. 10.—Judge William H. Hunt, of the United States district court, today instructed the federal grand jury in session here, to make a complete investigation of the charges of graft against certain officials in connection with the Crow Indian reservation in this state.

This action was taken in connection with the case of the government against Helen Pierce Gray, a newspaper woman of Chicago held on the charge of being unduly active among the Crow Indians. Mrs. Gray originally went to the reservation to report the opening of the ceded strip and then remained there, she said, to gather evidence in the graft cases, which she placed before the department of the interior at Washington. Upon presentation of her evidence, a special agent investigated her charges, completely exonerated the officials implicated, and declared the allegations without foundation. Upon her refusal to obey several orders to leave the reservation, Mrs. Gray was arrested on the charge of inciting the Indians to mutiny. WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1907.

McDONALD VS. TAYLOR.

[illegible] mysterious wireless ways in which [illegible] conveyed, it has got around that the candidates for Governor in the next campaign are already practically chosen. We have already noted that [illegible] Taylor of Glenwood [illegible] to have the Democratic nomination [illegible] although Senator Clayton of Weld thinks he still has something to say on the subject [illegible] something to say [illegible] many things [illegible] man has a right to get in [illegible] Still [illegible] the lead of the procession [illegible].

[illegible] Jesse F. McDonald is in the lead for the Republican nomination. An announcement [illegible] candidacy was made in the [illegible] John F. Vivian, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, who declares [illegible] McDonald, but so [illegible] of which he is the official head. Of course the support of the state machine is very important to any candidate. Whether it will [illegible] McDonald's chances with more independent voters [illegible] perhaps not, for this is [illegible] the cases where the machine gets in behind the most popular candidate so as to be near the head of the procession and not one of those cases where the machine forces an unwelcome nomination upon the party.

We congratulate the people of the state upon the outlook for the gubernatorial campaign. Both Senator Taylor and Governor McDonald are clean, strong men. If they are nominated there need be no personalities and no special bitterness. The former has served in the legislature for several terms and is practically the Democratic leader on the floor. The latter has a remarkable record. He has never sought office, but his neighbors have made him alderman and Mayor, his district, then naturally Democratic, elected him to the State Senate in 1902, but he was thrown out of his seat arbitrarily in order to keep a Democratic majority in the Senate. In 1904 he was named for Lieutenant-Governor and elected by a large majority. Succeeding to the governorship under peculiarly trying conditions, he actually achieved the feat of going out of office after two years with more friends than when he went in—a record unprecedented in this state. As we have said, it is because he is the most popular candidate that the machine has got in behind him. His record in office was excellent. Quiet and modest, he [illegible] himself. Always pleasant and good tempered, he makes no enemies even when he has to refuse requests. A good business man, he attended regularly the meetings of the boards of which the Governor is a member ex officio, and knew what was going on in all of them. In short, he devoted his entire attention to being Governor very much as Mr. Hughes is doing now in New York. The result could scarcely fail to be a success.

It is certain that Governor Buchtel will make no effort to obtain a renomination. He announced that he would not before he took the office, and has since reiterated the statement. There are others—probably two or three others—who might like to get the Republican nomination, and they may try to get it [illegible] a perfect right to do; but as things stand, Governor McDonald has a decided advantage over all other candidates.

THE LANGUAGE WEEDERS.

AN item concealed in the society columns of the Washington papers seems to us to be charged with a more than usual significance. Professor and Mrs. Brander Matthews and Professor T. R. Lounsbury have been guests this week at the White House. Why should this be? Neither Matthews nor Lounsbury is an "old college chum" of the President, nor is Mrs. Matthews, so far as anybody knows, a special friend of Mrs. Roosevelt. No, the [illegible] are reformed (and reforming) spellers; and Matthews was Lord High Executioner on that memorable occasion when three hundred words were condemned to death by executive order, and saved afterward only by prompt Congressional action. Lounsbury [illegible] not so much in reforming other people's spelling, as in finding good old English authority for modern slang. He has discovered "Where was I at?" in good authors two centuries old, and alleges that "Where are you going to?" is really the only correct form—unless, of course, one gets archaic and says "Whither goest thou?"

These can be but one object in this foregathering at the White House. The President has evidently tired of business and finance, and is getting ready for another onslaught on the language. What form it may take is a mystery. Very likely it will not be an executive order this time, for the last one was not such a shining success that the President would care to repeat it; but there is going to be "somethin' doin'" somehow, one may be sure. Maybe a new list of proscriptions is in process of drawing up, and words outside of the originally guilty three hundred may well shake in their types. [illegible] or letters [illegible] may [illegible]

[illegible] in their anguish at the prospect of being cut out of existence altogether. We shall await with bated breath the pronunciamento that must soon appear.

The mine owners at Goldfield have done what was the most evident thing for them to do—organized and gone to work on the same plan as the mine owners of Cripple Creek used four years ago. Tomorrow is the day set for the resumption of operations with nonunion miners. Hereafter the card system is to be used, and no man will be allowed to work who does not forswear all allegiance to the Western Federation. The organization of mine owners is to be extended to all the Nevada mining camps, and a determined effort will be made to drive the Western Federation entirely from the state. It will be interesting to observe how much attention these performances get at east in the East, and whether Eastern papers will take the same view that they did of the Colorado war. We have a notion that the Haywood trial did something to open the eyes of Easterners as to the true inwardness of the Western Federation, and that they will take a somewhat different view of things this time.

There is some talk of holding the Democratic national convention early in June, ahead of the Republican. That would break a time-honored precedent, but then, why not? They have got to nominate Bryan, and they may as well do it early and have the disagreeable performance over with. Even "Marse Henry" has caved in and owned up that Bryan has the party cinched. The "strong Southern man" that was going to be the dark horse is still so dark no one can find him. The boomers of Mr. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler will now be content with second place for their favorite. The track is clear. To the Republicans, this being the Democratic case, it need make no difference whether the Democrats hold their convention before or after. They know beforehand what it will do and most of what it will say, and can act accordingly.

Secretary Taft's party have had enough narrow escapes on this trip to [illegible] them the use of their lives. Now that they are at last embarked upon the deep, let us hope that they may have a safe voyage and a merry Christmas at home.

WIRES.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The air of Washington will be thick with wireless messages between the Capitol and the White House this week. But wires will be pulled just the same.

BILLS AND PETITIONS.

From the Washington Star.

Bills and petitions are now in order, and the prospects are that the record will be broken. Not only are there many new members in both houses of Congress, all full of suggestions about saving the country and anxious to redeem promises made on the stump, but issues are numerous, and all of them tempt a new hand at the bellows. But no harm will be done. The more bills the merrier. Few are expected to become laws. The pigeonholes of Congress are capacious. Many ambitious propositions find their way to those caverns. Otherwise six years instead of six months would be necessary to enable Congress to dispose of the business of a single long session.

PLEASANT EVENING FOR BRIDE AND GROOM.

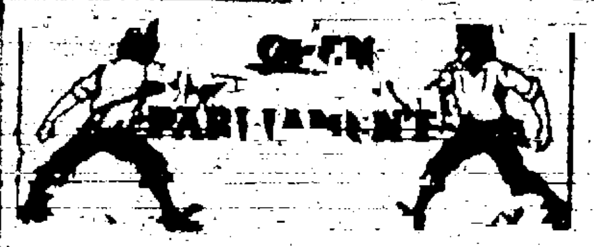

From the Durango (Colo.) Democrat.

At the Southern last evening things were busy. Mrs. Mack tipped it off to the jaynites that a bride and groom had registered from Silverton and then everybody got busy. The cans, rollers, sawdust, rice and everything that was loose was brought into play. The bridal sanctum was invaded and Howard Cox and his bride had to crawl out and do the right think. Then the champagne water flowed and in the bunch of celebrants we noticed our old political patriot McLaughlin from Pueblo. He was telling the groom how to do the right thing, and the suggestion worked. Mr. and Mrs. Cox were married at the Benson block yesterday morning and came down from Silverton last evening. May they never waste an effort is the Democrat's wish.

AOKI'S RECALL.

From the Boston Transcript.

The recall of an ambassador does not necessarily imply that his government is about to enter upon an unfriendly course towards the country from which he has been withdrawn; but it does usually signify that his policy has not been satisfactory to his superiors. The relations between the United States and Italy had entered upon a very troublous stage when the Italian government, following the Mafia episode at New Orleans, recalled Baron Fava. War did not follow, and the traditional friendship of the two countries was maintained. Our relations with Germany were improved by the change from Von Holleben to his successor, Baron Von Sternberg, yet the former left Washington on peremptory orders to report at once in person to Berlin, whence he never returned. The precedents, therefore, are not wholly favorable to the most ominous interpretation to be placed on the sudden summons to Viscount Aoki to return at once to Tokio; but the incident, it must be confessed, considering all the circumstances, is disquieting with regard to the ultimate attitude of Japan. The ambassador has labored most zealously to bring the two governments into harmony, to impress upon his own that it is impractical to hold out for absolutely unrestricted immigration and has been more than personally acceptable to the state department, which may well be surprised at this latest move from Tokio. The full significance of the recall, events must determine, and it may not be developed until the character of Aoki's successor is known, and it becomes manifest whether he represents the Elder statesmen or the more truculent of the Japanese opposition.

HE DOESN'T LIKE TO READ ADS.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

Will you kindly spare me room in your Open Parliament column to register a kick? Will some one please tell me why it is that every paper and magazine that one takes up nowadays is crowded to the very hilts with advertisements? There is actually more advertising in the average periodical than there is reading matter; [illegible] still, the publishers even carry some of the [illegible] advertising pages so as to [illegible] see the most [illegible] Well, [illegible] read this, that [illegible] this is the most disgusting form of the American greed for money.

How nice it would be if there were a magazine, every page of which was worth reading and which contained no obnoxious advertisements. What good does all the advertising do? What real good, I mean. Of course, I suppose the advertisers make more sales because of their advertising, else they wouldn't do it, but to society at large it is not only useless, but in many ways is a positive injury. Consider, for example, the fabulous sums invested in this most nauseous use of the English language. I understand that some magazines charge as high as $500 for a single page for a single issue! And when it is remembered that many times advertisements [illegible] a good many different periodicals in every one of their issues, the tremendous amount of money thrown away may be appreciated by the layman. Of course the advertiser gets his money back, but how? Simply by adding a few cents here and there, increasing the price or decreasing salaries, or putting out cheaper goods.

Is it right? Is it right for manufacturers to battle against each other and let the public pay the costs? Do not these advertisers [illegible] what they want? [illegible] read in some paper that Brown makes or sells a special [illegible] shoes, or blood tonic, does he think that I am going right down to his shop or store and buy a bottle [illegible] sick, or pair? Hardly!

Now Christmas is approaching, and [illegible] amount of advertising in the daily papers! Does anyone read it all? Impossible! It's only the most attractive ones that are read and the most alluring that are profitable. And here, I suppose, is where [illegible] useless member of [illegible] price to the advertiser, with his [illegible] [illegible] has the [illegible] separating people from their money.

How long must these [illegible] be [illegible] ordered and [illegible] When will we be [illegible] [illegible] own things with [illegible] and [illegible] of Christmas [illegible]

Yours in [illegible],
J. R. SMYTHE,
[illegible] Platte Avenue.

ALL OVER BUT THE SHOUTING.

From the Telluride (Colo.) Journal.

There was a numerous turnout at the funeral of George Vestae Sunday afternoon, after which the grief stricken countrymen proceeded to drown their sorrow a la Americans.

AFFINITY FAMINE HELPS BUSINESS.

From the Wichita (Kans.) Eagle.

There is a dearth of affinity in Sedgwick County. That is the reason given by S. N. Bridgeman, deputy clerk of the district court, for the increase in the number of divorce cases filed with the Sedgwick County Court.

GAY BOYS OF SAINT MARIE.

From the Saint Marie (Ill.) Tribune.

Peter Rennier is so sick of his St. Francisville trip that he will never take his quatly out there any more.

There was a very happy crowd at Ben Zulser's last Sunday night. Everybody enjoyed themselves very much.

Samuel Kalber had his only little [illegible] out buggy riding last Sunday night. That is right, Sam, turkeys are very scarce.

Louis White from St. Francisville thinks that Bertha Rennier is hard to beat, for he was all O. K. Sunday night with her.

Peter and Bertha Renrier, Martin and Clara Blank left for St. Francisville last Thursday and did not returned home until Saturday all enjoyed there trip very much, but Peter, he came home broken hearted as he reported that the girls had mistreated him.

Boys take advice and don't leap before you look were you are going to land and don't buy a gold watch and chain for your girl before you are sure she will take it like Fred Roth did for his girl, she [illegible] it on the floor, breaking it to thousands of pie[ces].

TAMMANY OPPOSES HUGHES

Dismissal of Ahern by Governor Precipitates Bitter Legal and Political Contest.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The refusal of John F. Ahern to submit passively to removal upon charges, from the office of president of the borough of Manhattan by Governor Hughes, has brought about a situation out of which may grow a legal fight of moment as well as a lining up of partisans and the development of feeling among the public interested in the case.

Today, counsel for Ahern secured temporary injunctions restraining [illegible] from [illegible] the order of removal and the mayor from presiding at a meeting of the aldermen for the election of a successor to Ahern. The order is returnable Friday, when an effort to make it permanent will be opposed by the corporation counsel. This in a sense arraying the forces friendly to Mayor McClellan, and by this instance to the governor, against Ahern, who has the open and powerful support of Tammany Hall.

Should Ahern's court action fail and he be removed finally, the board of aldermen, it was confidently declared in Tammany circles today, will immediately re-elect him borough president. Tammany leaders before now have declared that Ahern would be re-elected as fast as he was removed, but whether this threat will be carried out in the face of the governor's action is problematical. Another question raised by Ahern's friends today was whether Governor Hughes would have power to remove him a second time on the same grounds were he re-elected by the board of aldermen.

PROTECTS SMALL OPERATORS

Smelter Trust Puts Main Burden of Financial Flurry on Rich Nevada Mine Owners.

DENVER, Dec. 10.—Franklin Guiterman, general manager in the west for the American Smelting and Refining company, was charged today that the smelting corporation was seeking to retard the progress of the Nevada mines by refusing to pay cash for ore mined in that state. Mr. Guiterman said that it was true that high grade ore from Goldfield and other camps was not being paid for in cash by the company, but explained that in the present condition of the finances of the country the smelting company finds it impossible to do otherwise. Some of the high grade ore from Nevada runs as high as $50,000 a car in value, and he said, any should the smelting company pay cash for a lot of this they [illegible] [illegible] soon be unable to [illegible] [illegible] Low grade [illegible] was being paid for all low grade and medium grade ore from Nevada and other mining camps, he continued, and 25 per cent of the value of high grade ore was paid on delivery. The balance of high grade ore [illegible] to days or when the ore is finally treated. The [illegible] miner, said Mr. Guiterman, can afford to wait better than the miner in smaller circumstances, and the latter was the person the smelting company was seeking to protect.

LARGE CONCERN FAILS

Receivers Appointed for Electric Vehicle Company.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 10.—Receivers were appointed today for the Electric Vehicle company, a $20,000,000 New Jersey corporation, with a manufacturing plant at Hartford, Conn. Judge Cross, in appointing the receivers, adjudged the plant to be insolvent because it had defaulted in the payment of $2,000,000 of its gold bonds, which matured November 1. The indebtedness consists of these bonds, secured by a mortgage on property of the company held by the Morton Trust company of New York, notes aggregating $592,351 and accounts payable amounting to $224,196. The assets are placed at $16,-[illegible]81,432, of this sum $12,029 is in cash.

BREAKS AUTO RECORDS

Wonderful Speed Performances on Brookland's Track.

LONDON, Dec. 10.—On the Brookland's racing track at Weybridge, which was built especially for automobile speeding, and where recently S. A. Edge traveled 1,581 miles and 1,310 yards in 24 hours, a marvelous performance, Clifford Earp today set up a number of world's records. In a 60-horsepower car he covered 50 miles in 39 minutes and 10 seconds, and 150 miles in one hour 58 minutes and 34 seconds. He also broke the one hour world's record with 76 miles 453 yards to his credit, and in the two-hour world's record with 151 miles 116 yards.

HEADS OFF GRAFT GAME

Appointment of Receiver Protects Small Stockholders.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 10.—Owen N. Wilcox was today appointed receiver of the Cleveland and Sharon Electric Railroad company by Judge Strimple, in common pleas court.

Wilcox was appointed receiver as a consequence of a petition filed by the company, through its president, Francis B. Morgan, and the appointment is alleged to have headed off a plan of the financiers behind the road to enrich themselves at the expense of the smaller stockholders. The [illegible] company was organized under the laws of Ohio, with a capital stock of $2,500,000, and has issued $2,500,000 in bonds.

NO CHANGE IN RACE

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—At 1 o'clock this (Wednesday) morning there was no relative change in the positions of the six-day bicycle riders. The five leading teams have covered 849 miles and seven laps, the second division have covered 849 miles and six laps, and Lawson and McDonald, 848 miles and 5 laps, with Wilcox and Williams five laps in the rear of the third team.

AWARDS NOBEL PEACE PRIZES

Equally Divided Between M. Moneta of Italy and M. Renault of France.

CHRISTIANIA, Dec. 10.—The Nobel peace prize is this year to be equally divided between Ernesto Teodoro Moneta of Italy and Louis Renault of France. This announcement was made today by J. H. Lovland, the Norwegian president, at the meeting of the Nobel Institute. The Nobel prizes for literature, medicine, physics and chemistry were awarded at Stockholm. The premier took advantage of this occasion to eulogize the late King Oscar of Sweden, who he said had been prominent among the [illegible] peacemakers of the world.

M. Renault is the permanent delegate of France to the Hague tribunal and represented his country at the second peace conference last summer. M. Moneta has been prominent as a worker for peace in Italy. He was elected president of the fifteenth universal peace conference at Milan in September, 1906.

In view of the recent death of King Oscar, the distribution of the prizes was carried out without ceremony and very quietly. Among those present in the hall of the Nobel institute were the members of the Norwegian cabinet and of the storthing and the diplomatists accredited to Norway.

Owing to the recent death of King Oscar, there was no public function, and the banquet, which it is customary to give in the evening, was omitted on account of the public mourning for the deceased sovereign. The prize for literature was awarded to Rudyard Kipling; that of physics to Professor Albert A. Michelson of the University of Chicago; that of medicine to Dr. Laveran of Paris and the chemistry prize to Professor Eduard Buchner of the University of Berlin. All the [illegible] [illegible] In addition to the prizes, which this year amount each to $38,000, each recipient will be given a diploma and a gold medal.

STEAMER BREAKS SHAFT

Panic Among Passengers Is Averted by Officers.

SOUTHAMPTON, Dec. 10.—The Red Star line steamer Kroonland from Antwerp December 7 for New York, which broke her shaft off Scilly Islands on Sunday last was towed into this port. [illegible] the Kroonland [illegible] during a gale just as the passengers were turning in for the night. The vessel suddenly [illegible] several degrees that threw [illegible] everybody aboard off [illegible] feet [illegible] shoved down. The officers [illegible] with commendable coolness and promptitude, the former going among the passengers and allaying their alarm as far as possible.

The Kroonland was [illegible] [illegible] along and headed for Southampton under her own steam. Although the weather was rough and high seas were running she made good progress until picked up by tugs off this port. All the first and second cabin passengers and many of the steerage passengers have been transferred to the steamship Majestic, which will leave here tomorrow for New York.

DISMAL VIGIL AT MINE

Relatives of Dead Miners Watch Through Rain and Snow.

MONONGAH, W. Va., Dec. 10.—The crowds of others who have surged about the pit entrances of the mines of the Fairmont Coal company from the moment of the awful explosion of last Friday morning, has been dwindling ever since rain started last night, until tonight there only remained the forces employed in rescue work, the newspaper workers and the disconsolate relatives of victims, who remained faithful in their vigil during the downpour all night and all day and are still shivering and enduring physical discomforts in the wet snow that has succeeded the rain.

When darkness fell, 141 bodies had actually been brought to the surface while many more were located with every prospect of the rapid work of recovery of the past 24 hours continuing through the night.

INVESTIGATE BOND ISSUE

Senate Will Make Inquiry Into Financial Matters.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Senator Aldrich today informed the Senate that the committee on finance would, within a very short time, bring in a resolution providing for an inquiry into the bond issues of the government, and that it would provide for investigation into all matters contained in resolutions offered by senators concerned in the financial stringency and the efforts of the government to relieve the situation. With this assurance Senators Culberson of Texas and Clay of Georgia agreed to permit their resolutions to go to the committee for its consideration. Senator Tillman allowed his resolutions on the same subject to lie on the table until he secures data he desires to present to the Senate. The Senate adjourned at 1:05 p. m.

OCCUPIES PRISON CELL

Manager of Defunct Trust Company Fails to Furnish Bond.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 10.—James Dalzell Brown, general manager of the suspended California Safe Deposit and Trust company, who was arrested last Sunday night on the charge of embezzlement, was unable to obtain a bond for $50,000, and tonight he occupies a cell in the female ward of the city prison. David F. Walker, president of the institution, arrived here tonight under custody of a police officer from Santa Barbara, where he was arrested yesterday. A bond of $75,000 had already been secured for him, and he was given his liberty.

SAN JUAN, Dec. 10.—The officers of the American torpedo boat flotilla, which is on its way to the Pacific, were entertained by the officers of the Porto Rican regiment at a ball last night. The flotilla will leave here Thursday for Port of Spain, Trinidad.

PERRY SCHULTZE MURDERED

A Former Well-Known Colorado Springs Man Shot by Unknown Man in Spokane, Wash.

Press dispatches from Spokane, Wash., yesterday contained the news that Perry Schultze, formerly a clerk at the Spalding hotel and later captain in the Colorado Springs fire department, was murdered in his room in a hotel early Sunday morning. The room gave evidence that a fierce struggle had preceded the murder, but the police are at a loss to assign a motive for the deed. Schultze was shot through the head, and the body was found lying in a pool of blood. The police have arrested two suspects.

When Schultze first came to Colorado from Illinois 15 years ago, he took a position as clerk at the Spalding house. On April 15, 1898, he was appointed pipeman on the fire department, and later became a captain, resigning in 1900, and becoming a street car conductor on the Tejon street line. He left this city a year ago, going to Spokane as a motorman with the street car company there. He was living in a hotel on Main street.

WILL SUE CITY FOR $5,000

Mrs. Grey Will Claim Damages on Account of Husband's Death in Auto Accident.

A second suit resulting from the automobile accident on West Huerfano street, on the morning of September 17, will be brought against the city, according to notice served on Mayor D. N. Heizer, City Clerk E. C. F. Whittaker and members of the City Council yesterday. The notice was served by Attorney W. M. Swift for Mrs. Aline Grey, widow of J. S. Grey, one of the three men killed in the accident, and declares that suit for $5,000 is to be brought in the district court.

Notice of the first suit was given a month ago by Mrs. Lillie N. Ralston, widow of William Ralston, and at that time it was announced that suits aggregating $75,000 were to be brought as a result of the accident. None of the suits have as yet been instituted in the courts.

Mrs. Grey will base her suit on the grounds that her husband's death was occasioned by the careless and negligent maintenance of West Huerfano street by the city, because of the "rough, uneven street surface," the "sharp curve at the top of the steep grade," and "neglect in maintaining a long, deep, narrow and uncovered excavation on the south side of the hill and curve."

COLORED Y. M. C. A. LAUNCHED

Organization Perfected at Enthusiastic Meeeting Last Night—Adam Jones Elected President.

With a large and enthusiastic membership, the colored Y. M. C. A. was formally instituted last night at its temporary quarters, 402 South Weber street. The organization was launched with assurances of substantial support, and its promoters feel that the future is bright with promise. The main assembly room will remain open daily beginning this morning and men's meetings will be held at stated intervals. The departments will be installed as soon as possible.

Words of encouragement were spoken last evening by Mayor D. N. Heizer and Charles B. Hall, general secretary of the Colorado Springs Y. M. C. A.

The following officers and directors were elected: President, Adam Jones; vice presidents, A. J. Jenkins, James W. Macon; recording secretary, H. H. Seymour; treasurer, R. D. Fleming; general secretary, F. M. Roberts; board of directors, Adam Jones, A. J. Jenkins, James W. Macon, H. H. Seymour, R. D. Fleming, F. M. Roberts, Thomas Smith, L. L. Duncan and S. Jones.

CITY BRIEFS

GOOD AD FOR SPRINGS

SCENERY IN THIS REGION TO ILLUSTRATE SONGS.

Albion, Michigan, Man Here With Company of Actors to Take Pictures.

Colorado Springs is to be pictorially presented before the closing of the present theatrical season to hundreds of thousands of persons who compose the audiences of the leading vaudeville houses of the country. The views of mountain scenery taken in this vicinity, to be used as illustrations of the popular sentimental song, "When Vacation Days Are Over," which has for its theme a romance that had its beginning in this city several years ago.

With the singing of each couplet a view of the scene that gave inspiration to the sentiment will be thrown on the canvas by a picture machine. These views will be true to nature in color, shade and tone.

With a company of actors who pose for the characters in the pictures, D. S. Fry, of the Globe Slide and Film company, of Albion, Mich., is in the city staying at the Alamo hotel. Pictures are being taken for several popular songs.

"When Vacation Days Are Over" will be illustrated with 15 views, each picturing a sentimental couplet.

The Scenes to Be Used.

A view of Ute pass, with a cabin nestling in the pines, will depict "'Twas in the depths of summer, in the sweet vacation time."

"When everyone is happy and all the world's in rhyme," will be pictured by a view of a young man and his sweetheart crossing the bridge over Monument creek at the foot of Monument Valley park.

"Stratton Park gives a setting for 'Nightly into the woodland these strolled a lass and lad.'"

A picture of crowds entering a Colorado Midland train will illustrate the first stanza of the chorus:

"When vacation days are over
And the crowds are homeward bound
When the mighty winds of autumn
Turn the leaves to golden brown."

The First Congregational church of Colorado City is the one chosen for the excursion [illegible].

"In the [illegible] church we'll wander
While the bells ring sweet and clear,
When vacation days are over
We'll be wedded, Gracie dear."

Cheyenne and the Peak.

Cheyenne mountain, with a glimpse of Colorado Springs in the [illegible] of the valley, pictures

"Skies that were blue and gold."

Pikes Peak, with its [illegible] covered with snow, will be the view for

"Touched by the hand of winter
Now seems so gray and cold."

In the Garden of the Gods:

"Lonely the lass is waiting
Far from her he has strayed."

And at Cheyenne Falls:

"It is December, does he remember
The promise that he made?"

A view of the girl leaving at the railway station closes the song with a repetition of the chorus:

"Vacation days are over."

KIDNAPED MANY TIMES

AYERS CHILD HAS FIGURED IN OTHER SIMILAR CASES.

Girl Partly Answering Her Description, Taken South From Fountain by Unknown Man

The story that [illegible] Lucile Ayers, who was [illegible] abducted in Colorado City [illegible] [illegible] has figured [illegible] [illegible] was revealed [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mrs. J. L. Ayers [illegible] [illegible] after that the child [illegible] [illegible] of kidnaping [illegible] sides. According to information given to Chief of Police Green [illegible] City yesterday [illegible] was willing that the [illegible] possession of the child [illegible] sorted to various means to [illegible]. These facts strengthen [illegible] the child is now in possession of the father.

A year ago, Mr. and Mrs. Ayers took their troubles into court [illegible] to secure a divorce, but [illegible] was not granted, the court ruling that the grounds were insufficient. The couple then decided to separate and the court ruled that the child, then only 2 years old, should be placed in the custody of the mother. Mr. Ayers then went to Tucson, Ariz., while Mrs. Ayers came [illegible] to Colorado City.

Still at Work on Case.

Under the direction of Chief Gresory, the Colorado City police spent yesterday following various clues, but their search was futile. It was reported that a strange man [illegible] child boarded a southbound train at Fountain Monday night [illegible] was established with the [illegible] was found that the description [illegible] girl tallied in certain points [illegible] that her dress was compared [illegible] from the one which [illegible] wore when she was picked [illegible] rado City.

When last seen in Colorado [illegible] girl was [illegible] apron. The Fountain girl [illegible] in white, wearing a [illegible] [illegible] light [illegible] just a trace of Gertrude A[illegible].

No Tangible Results.

Believing that the father [illegible] kidnaped the child and [illegible] escape detection, had redressed her with clothes already provided [illegible] driver to Fountain [illegible] Monday evening just in time to [illegible] a train, the police followed [illegible] clue yesterday, but were unable to get any tangible results.

Mrs. Ayers thus far [illegible] news concerning the child [illegible] express the fear that it has been harmed. Had she been carried off by persons other than the father or his agents, she undoubtedly would have received notes or messages by this time demanding a reward for her return. Such, however, have not appeared.

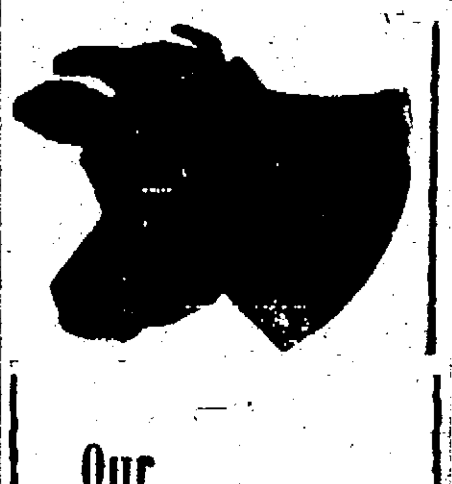

Word [illegible] certain the whereabouts of the child's father, but the fact that he is a freight conductor and is frequently gone for long periods gives little hope that anything of value can be learned from this source.

What Press Agents Say

SEATS FOR THE "BLUE MOON"

The [illegible] of seats for the engagement of "The Blue Moon" at the Opera House, on next Friday evening, will begin at the box office this morning. "The Blue Moon" won great success in England, and since its introduction on this side of the water its Americanized version has won equal popularity. This is due in great part to the attractiveness of James T. Powers in the leading comedy rôle. No [illegible] on our stage has a greater reputation [illegible] straightforward and legitimate comedy work than Mr. Powers, and if accounts be true, in "The Blue Moon" he has a vehicle which gives him every opportunity to put his best foot forward.

The management has spared no expense in giving their star a company which will ably second him in his efforts to amuse. Numbered among the large company are many old favorites and several new ones who have won much commendation since the first offering of this piece. Among the cast will be found Clara Palmer, Marion Jacques, Leslie Leigh, Myrtle Cosgrove, Phil H. Ryley, B. Phoenix, Robert Bredrick, H. L. Griffith, Frank Farrington, Blanche Wolcott, La Nova, the toe dancer, and a chorus which will equal in every respect the famous aggregations for which the Messrs. Shubert are renowned.

There are some 25 musical numbers on the program, and numbered among them are several which promise to be great popular successes. Naming a few, we will find "Why Don't You Take One Little Boy," "Burmah Girl," "She Didn't Know," "Crocodile," "Don't You Think It Time to Marry?" and a specialty by Mr. Powers and Miss Palmer, entitled "Popular Entertainment."

The scenes of the play are laid in British India, which affords great opportunity in scenic and costume effects, and it is said that the Messrs. Shubert have provided a setting beautiful to behold.

HOLIDAY RATES IN COLORADO

Railroads Will Grant Low Christmas Rates.

Holiday rates are to be granted by the railroads to all points in Colorado, but the reduction will not extend generally beyond the boundaries of the state. Tickets to point west of Colorado Springs, Denver and Pueblo will be sold at one fare for the round trip on December 23 to December 25, inclusive, and December 31 to January 1, inclusive, with January 6 as the return limit. Tickets to point in eastern Colorado will be on sale on the same dates with the same time limit at a round-trip rate of one and one-third fare.

Upon presentation of certificates from college and school authorities, students will be given reduced rates not earlier than December 18 nor later than December 25, good returning until January [illegible].

TO REFUND SCHOOL BONDS

Unanimous Vote on Question Polled Yesterday.

At the special election held at the High School building yesterday afternoon, it was decided by a unanimous vote to refund $172,000 in school bonds. Following the formal meeting of the electors, the polls were open from 2 to 6 o'clock, but only a light vote was polled. The bonds involved were as follows: $25,000, issued in September, 1894; $42,000, issued in February, 1900; $25,000, issued in March, 1900, and $80,000 issued in November, 1897. The judges of the election were Van E. Rouse, R. O. Knowlton and Prof. Otto F. Dubach.

Martin Drake, the real estate man, has returned to his business after being confined to his home for several days on account of rheumatism.

The funeral of Charles F. Schnagel, who died Sunday evening, was held yesterday afternoon from the Minium undertaking rooms. The Rev. Grant Tyre[illegible] of the First M. E. church officiated. Interment was in Fairview cemetery.

Julius Berg had his preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon in the justice court before Justice J. D. Faulkner. He was bound over to the district court. Berg was arrested for attempting to assault the Misses Minnie and Agnes Kneller last week while they were returning home from work. This is his second offense, as he was tried in Colorado Springs about six months ago and sentenced to jail for assaulting a woman.

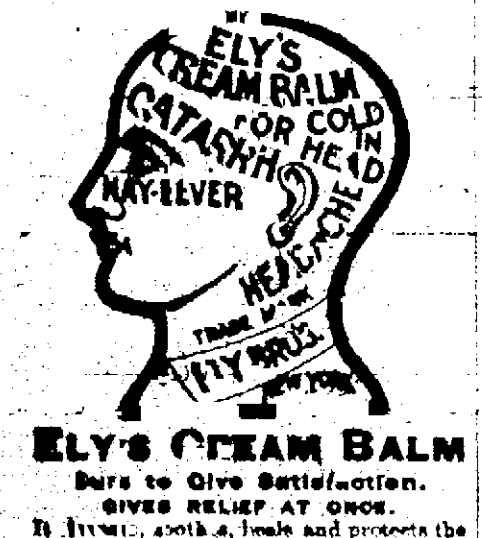

A NOTED PALMIST

Professor A. Warren St. Cyr, the famous palmist and psychic scientist, who created quite a sensation here several years ago, has returned to the city and opened offices at 312 North Tejon street. The professor established his reputation here on his last visit, and many of his friends and former clients will no doubt be delighted to hear of his return.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

Harry Robinson was yesterday convicted of petit larceny upon the charge of stealing grain sacks from the Houston Lumber company. He was sentenced by Justice Ruby to 60 days in the county jail. The warrant for his arrest was sworn out by O. L. Roberson. In yesterday morning's Gazette it was erroneously stated that O. L. Robertson had been arrested.

The trial of the case of Woestman vs. the C. R. I. & P. railroad was continued yesterday in the district court, the day being devoted to the hearing of testimony. Woestman charges that his ice houses at Monument were destroyed by fire caused by the railroad company. The trial is expected to consume the remainder of the week.

FOOTBALL DANCE.—A football dance is being promoted by members of the Colorado College eleven, to be held on New Years eve, December 31, at the Alamo hotel. The dance will come during the holidays and promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season in college and high school circles. Members of the local football teams will be special guests of the evening.

LOCKHART INTERESTED.—James A. Lockhart of Colorado Springs is a director of the newly-organized Arkansas Valley Water Supply and Power company, which plans to take the overflow from Horse creek, eight miles north of Sugar City, and convey it to Sugar City, Manzanola, Ordway, Rocky Ford, Swink and La Junta for domestic use. The object of the change from the present system of water supply is to prevent typhoid, which has been prevalent in the valley because of the surface water.

NEW OFFICERS.—At the stated communication of the Colorado Springs Royal Arch Masons No. 6, held last evening, the following officers were elected: [illegible] F. Burrell, high priest; Andrew J. On next Tuesday evening the installation of officers will take place in the chapter.

WANTS YOUNG CAPTAINS

Alexander McCracken Will Command the West Virginia.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Alexander McCracken was today ordered by Secretary Metcalf to the command of the armored cruiser West Virginia, relieving Captain J. B. Milton. The change is in accordance with the policy of the navy department inaugurated last summer, of assigning to the more important sea commands officers who have yet considerable time to serve, so that the department may have the benefit of their experience after they reach the grade of rear admiral.

Captain Lucian Young will relieve Captain McCracken as captain of the Mare Island navy yard.

Appendicitis.

How to Avoid It and Escape a Surgical Operation. Told by One Who Knows

A Simple Method That Is Always Efficacious.

It has only been a few years since it was discovered that a surgical operation would cure appendicitis; in fact, it has been but a short time since the disease was discovered and named.

Whenever there is an inflamed condition of the appendix, caused by impacted faeces in the small cavity opening into the intestine, you then have appendicitis.

The older doctors used to call this inflammation of the bowels, and were puzzled to know the cause.

Even now, with all the knowledge we have of the disease, no medical man can tell you why we should have an appendix, why we find it where it is, or what are its functions, if it has any.

The disease for which the operation is a cure is usually caused by indigestion, and in many cases follows a large and indigestible meal.

Physicians have until recently recommended an operation, but now, as it is known that it is caused by indigestion, or dyspepsia, a cure without an operation is assured.

Where the patient is treated with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the unhealthy conditions prevailing rapidly disappear, the stomach and intestines are placed back in their normal condition, every organ of the body operates as it should, and the inflammation is reduced and the operation is avoided.

Conscientious physicians, who are looking after the best interests of their patients, will always keep a supply of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets handy in their office, where in cases of sudden attacks of indigestion they can relieve the patient at once.

There is no record of a case of appendicitis where the stomach and bowels were in a healthy condition and properly digested the food from meal to meal.

No better advice can be given to any one who has attacks of indigestion, or who has been threatened with appendicitis, than to tell him to go to the drug store, pay 50 cents and take home a package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Whenever heartburn, gas in stomach or bowels, heart disease or stomach troubles, sour eructations, acidity or fermentation are present, act at once. Take a dose of the Tablets and get relief as soon as possible.

At all druggists 50 cents.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

DEPARTMENT REVOKES ORDER

Coca-Cola May Be Sold at All Army Posts Under New Ruling.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—The following order from the war department revokes the former order prohibiting the sale of Coca-Cola in army post exchanges. By the same order the government states that no cocaine or alcohol was found in the analysis by the agricultural department.

The report further states that the original order prohibiting the sale of Coca-Cola in post exchanges was based on information which later, by a careful analysis, was proved to be incorrect.

The following order, reproduced in full, has been sent to every department of the United States army from Washington to the Philippines, and immediately permits the sale of Coca-Cola at post exchanges:

October 29, 1907.

The Commanding General, Philippine Division, Manila.

Sir—The manufacturers of the beverage known and sold as Coca-Cola having appealed to the secretary of war to revoke the instructions issued by the war department on June 17, 1907, directing that the sale of Coca-Cola by army post exchanges be discontinued, and the papers in the case, including a report by the chief of the bureau of chemistry, agricultural department, as to the composition of the beverage, having been referred to the judge advocate general of the army, that officer has reported as follows:

October 28, 1907.

Fourth Indorsement, War Department, Office of the Judge Advocate General, Washington, D. C.

Respectfully returned to the adjutant general.

The only legal prohibition in respect to the sale of beverages at military posts, or at places within the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, is that embodied in the act of February 2, 1901, which provides that:

"The sale of or dealing in beer, wine or any intoxicating liquors by any person in any post exchange or canteen or army transport, or upon any premises used for military purposes by the United States, is hereby prohibited."

Sec. 38, Act of February 2, 1901 (31 Stat. L., 758).

The sale of the syrup or beverage known as Coca-Cola was prohibited upon the representation that it contained 2 per cent of alcohol; incidentally the presence of other harmful ingredients, in small quantities, was reported, but the prohibition was largely based upon the presence of alcohol in the quantity above noted.

The substance has been submitted to and examined by the chief of the Bureau of Chemistry of the Agricultural department, from whose report it appears that the beverage contains no appreciable quantity of alcohol. It also contains no cocaine and but a [illegible] quantity of caffeine. The result of the investigation has therefore been to show that the original order of exclusion was based upon data in respect to the presence of alcohol which, upon a thorough chemical examination, are found not to exist to the extent supposed when the matter was first submitted to the secretary of war for administrative action. As the legal reason for the establishment and enforcement of the prohibition no longer exists, it is recommended that the order of exclusion be revoked.

GEORGE B. DAVIS,
Judge Advocate General.

The acting secretary of war concurring in the views of the judge advocate general of the army, directs that any instructions heretofore given prohibiting the sale of Coca-Cola at army post exchanges be revoked. Very respectfully,

F. C. AINSWORTH,
The Adjutant General.

INDEX RESUMES OPERATIONS

Property Looks Good and Will Be Worked by Owners—Lease Was Forfeited

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. [illegible]—The Index Gold Mining company, which owns valuable property consisting of over 27 acres on the west slope of Gold Hill, has resumed operations after having been closed down for several months. The property was under lease to the Aetna Mining and Development company, which had also granted several sublease. The company forfeited work during the early summer, and forfeited the lease. Now the company will work the property on its own account. The Aetna company during its tenure shipped out considerable ore of a good grade while one or two subleasers sent out a number of cars of ore that went between three and four ounces. The shaft on the Index was, during the present year, sunk to the 900 foot point and considerable dead work has been accomplished. The company will more [illegible] there is ore in sight and will also do considerable development work.

GETS LEASE ON POINTER

Frank Abbott Will Develop Property on Gold Hill.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Dec. [illegible]—W. R. Foley, president of the Pointer Gold Mining company, operating on Gold Hill, has [illegible] a lease on the [illegible] Frank Abbott with graded royalties. The Pointer during the last few years has only been worked in a desultory manner, but some ore of fine grade was shipped to the mills. Mr. Abbott intends to do some development work and to try and demonstrate a theory as to where the ore shoot can be found. There is a splendid plant of machinery on the property, with shaft house and ore houses. The shaft is something over 700 feet in depth and several thousand feet of laterals have been run.

There is more activity on Gold hill, especially the northwestern slope, at the present time than there has been for years previously, and leases are being sought with avidity.

Heavy Drain on New York by Interior Banks Renders Speculative Sentiment Uncertain.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The support for the market, which has been persisted in for some time past, was evidently abandoned today, but whether voluntarily or forcibly was not clear. There was [illegible] calling of loans by the banks following that of yesterday and the call money [illegible] with a maximum [illegible]. This had a bad effect on the [illegible] stock market [illegible] pression was [illegible] the selling [illegible] especially on the Hill stocks and Reading, [illegible] for the most conspicuous operations in supporting the advance [illegible] of marked sympathetic effect on the whole market.

Some relative resistance was shown by [illegible] There was some evidence also of the [illegible] of large accounts from the Hill stocks into the Harriman [illegible] motives for the withdrawal of call loan credits by the banks were not [illegible] understood and were perhaps of added unfavorable effect for that reason. The publication in detail of the reports of the New York City National banks in response to the call of the controller of the currency revealed so heavy an impairment of resources in the case of one or two on which pressure was especially [illegible] was [illegible] these banks [illegible]

A TALE OF TWINS

Columbus Letter to the Indianapolis News.

Once upon a time twin sons were born in Brown county and their names were Brown. One was named Thomas and the other John. Not long ago they bought a cow and the animal gave birth to twin calves. One calf became the property of twin Thomas, while the other was the property of twin John. Yesterday the twin boys drove the twin steers to the city and disposed of them to a local live stock dealer. The steers weighed 1,400 pounds each, and the twin boys carried home $150 as a result of the sale.

CONSUMERS OF MEAT.

The United States has a per capita consumption of dressed meat of 185.5 pounds. Americans rank among the greatest meat eaters in the world. The per capita consumption in Australia is 263. In Germany the per capita is 113.5, and in France 78 pounds. Climatic considerations may account in a degree for the difference of nations with respect to dietary. It is to be noted, however, that the per capita consumption of meat in Cuba is 124, against Sweden's per capita of 62 pounds. Englishmen enjoy distinction as "beef eaters," but the per capita in the United Kingdom is only 119.5 pounds. They are outranked [illegible] by Cubans.

Announcement

The Alta Vista Hotel Management have decided to open up several of their best rooms, which they usually close in winter, to desirable people at a price which will be appreciated by those who desire warm, comfortable quarters. We believe that it is better to realize something from a few rooms inasmuch as the expense to us is little greater whether occupied or vacant, having our own heating and light plant. A lower proportionate rate will be made where two or more occupy.

The wonder of the traveling public—how they can

Life's Mysteries Revealed

By the World-Famed

PSYCHIC-PALMIST

A. Warren St. Clair

PALMISTRY AND CLAIRVOYANCE.

PALMISTRY is an ancient recognized science. Your life and all that the years hold is plainly written in your hand. The scientific palmist reveals to you your character, capabilities, virtues and faults; state of your health, length of your life, what vocation you would best succeed in, etc., etc. CLAIRVOYANCE is one of the rarest gifts given to man. The learned and honest who have taken the trouble to investigate are willing to admit that there are some people gifted with clairvoyant foresight whose reflex vision enables them to cast shadows of coming events and focalize them upon the mind.

Half the mistakes in life arise from not knowing how to act in harmony with coming events. To be forewarned by one thoroughly conversant with the science of palmistry and endowed with clairvoyant foresight solves the problem and puts you on the right track. Thousands testify to this fact. Success in business, family affairs, matters of the heart, or in the social world, can be obtained if only the right means are used. Troubles, misfortunes, accidents, and failures, sickness and death can be avoided if you are forewarned and act in time. No trouble are so great, no matter what they relate to, but what can be helped and actually overcome. Seek the right means, and life's greatest blessings: Health, Wealth and Happiness—are yours.

PROF. A. WARREN ST. CLAIR, the greatest living Psychic, Palmist and Clairvoyant, will accurately reveal your entire past life, and tell you what the future holds for you. Common sense says "take advantage of this opportunity." Learn who your friends and enemies are. Know what you have to meet, the dangers that are before you, and control them. By a change of attitude you may alter your entire fate.

COUNTERFEITS AND GENUINE.

We all know that there are genuine as well as counterfeit dollars, good doctors and bad ones, honest lawyers and dishonest ones. Just so with palmists and clairvoyants. There are some genuine and some imitations. "Judge him by his work." Prof. St. Clair's motto is: "Work and Win." He helps his patients in attaining their various ambitions. That is why he has so many of them, and why they recommend him to their friends.

AMBITIONS GRATIFIED.

No matter what our ambitions or desires may be, they can be attained. The all-wise Creator did not endow you with high ideas, lofty inspirations, desire for health and happiness, a return for that love craving in your heart, without, at the same time, placing within your reach the means of attaining these desires. No matter what your ambition or desires may be, they can be realized, and Prof. A. Warren St. Clair, the greatest living Palmist and Clairvoyant, will show you the way.

All business strictly confidential. Charges reduced to $1. Satisfaction assured or no pay. Daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Other hours by appointment.
